

JOINT ADMISSION COUNSELING, DELHI SPOT ROUND ADMISSION PROCESS AND SCHEDULE

(Candidates are advised to read the document carefully before applying for the spot round)

Because of the prevailing situation of COVID-19, JAC Delhi has decided to hold spot round of admissions in ONLINE MODE. Candidates NEED NOT report physically to the spot round venue. Three rounds of seat allotments will be done during online spot round. In each round, seats will be allotted to participating candidates as per their filled choices and availability of seats. Candidate can accept the allotted seat by submitting seat acceptance fee of Rs. 93,000 in online mode. Admission of candidate will be confirmed by JAC Delhi after document verification. Those who do not accept the offered seat by paying the seat acceptance fee, will not be considered for next round of seat allotment. Thus candidates are advised to fill only those choices which they can accept and arrange the choices carefully as they may be upgraded to higher order choice during spot round. Choice editing is not allowed during spot round.

IMPORTANT NOTE :

- (i) All EWS, OBC, SC, ST, KM, PD, CW, TP, SG candidates willing to participate in spot round should ensure that their uploaded category/subcategory certificate(s) are valid for admission. Refer chapter 3, section 3.3 of admission brochure for certificates required.
- (ii) If a seat is allotted to a candidate in spot round and his/her certificates are not valid, allotted seat will be cancelled and their category/subcategory will be changed to 'GENERAL'.
- (iii) All the registered candidates, who wish to change their category/subcategory, must submit the request through their registered email ID to helpdesk.jacdelhi@gmail.com along with the supporting documents ONLY ON DEC. 3-4, 2020. Based on the formal request and validity of the submitted documents, they will be allowed to change their required category/subcategory.

1. Spot round admissions

After round 5 (pre-upgradation round), an internal upgradation will be done for admitted candidates as mentioned in admission brochure (section 5.6 page 44). This upgradation will be done involving all participating Universities/Institutes by taking the maximum rank of last round of counseling cut-off of JEE Main Rank (Paper I) in each category & region for DTU & NSUT as base cut off ranks. Candidates having rank falling within the base cutoff will be allowed to get upgraded in any of the participating institute. Result of this upgradation will be available on JAC Delhi website as round 6 allotment results.

Vacant seats created after this upgradation will be available for spot round of admission and will be displayed on the JAC Delhi website on Dec. 1, 2020 after 5PM.

1.1 Participating candidates for spot round

All admitted candidates who have not frozen their allotted seat, will automatically participate in spot round for further upgradation. They are not required to submit their willingness or pay Rs. 10,000 to participate in spot round. In each round of seat allotment (round 7, round 8 and round 9) of spot round, admitted candidates will be considered for seat upgradation, if they have not frozen their allotted branch.

The following candidates are eligible for SPOT Round:

- a) Any candidate who had not registered during previous round(s) of counseling. Such candidate will have to first register on JAC Delhi portal.
- b) The registered candidates who have not been offered any seat in previous rounds, including pre-upgradation Round of online counseling
- c) Any candidate who has withdrawn his/her admission from any participating university/institute.
- e) The registered candidates who were allotted seat in any of the online counseling rounds (round 1-round 5) but did not report for admission.
- f) The registered candidates who have not filled any choice during online registration process.
- g) The registered candidates who were allotted seat in some round of counseling, but the seat was cancelled due to some deficiency (or any other legitimate reason).

All such candidates who are willing to participate in spot round need to pay Rs. 10,000 as spot round participation fee. This fee will be refunded if you are not allotted any seat during spot round process.

1.2 Spot round registration Process

- a) The candidates who have already registered during round1- round5 need to pay spot round participation fee of Rs. 10,000/- through JAC Delhi Portal. Fresh registration and spot round participation fee payment will remain open for two days as per the dates mentioned in spot round schedule. Those who register afresh, need to pay Rs. 10,000 after they complete the registration process.
- b) All the candidates participating in spot round need to fill choices for seat allotment/upgradation during spot round. Candidates are advised to fill only those choices which they can accept (if offered in spot round) and arrange the choices carefully as they may get upgraded to higher order choice during spot round. No choice editing is allowed during spot round. If a seat is offered to any candidate in spot round and he/she does not accept it by paying seat acceptance fee of Rs.

93,000, his/her spot round participation fee of Rs. 10,000 will be forfeited and he/she will not be considered for any seat allotment in subsequent seat allotment rounds.

- c) Candidates may note that once a candidate accepts the seat by paying Rs 93,000, he/she will not be eligible for any refund of the amount paid, if he withdraws his/her admission at any stage.

1.3 Seat Conversion Rules during spot round

- a) After exhausting the complete list of registered candidates in PD and CW subcategories, remaining vacant seats in these subcategories will be transferred to respective main category (GEN/SC/ST/OBC/EWS).
- b) After exhausting the complete list of registered SC, ST, OBC and EWS candidates, the vacant seats will be treated as unreserved in the “Spot Round”. The conversion of vacant Outside Delhi Region seats to Delhi Region seats and vice versa will be done as per the following procedure:
- i. If the complete list of registered ST Delhi candidates is exhausted, then the remaining vacant seats under this category will be filled from the list of SC Delhi category candidates or vice versa.
